Goby the Goat

There was once an old goat named Goby. He 9 had spent his life eating green grass. Goby would 18 roam from field to field to locate the best grass on 29 which to munch. 32

One day Goby stopped eating. He had eaten so 41 much grass, he could not eat another bite. Logan 50 was Goby's owner. Logan was very upset because 58 Goby stopped eating. The vet told Logan to try 67 giving Goby other food. 71

Sometimes Logan would take Goby oats in a 79 bowl. Other times Logan might throw him a tomato 88 or a potato. He even tried giving him fruit. Goby 98 just gave a groan and turned up his nose. 107

One day Logan gave him a piece of his leftover 117 toast. It had a little butter and jam on it. Goby 128 tasted the toast. Yum, yum! It was the most he 138 had eaten in a long time. From that day on, Goby 149 ate only toast with butter and jam. That made 158
Logan happy too. 161
